

"Slate.org has provided us with a platform to share applicant information between our office and our high school partners without expending considerable resources, which are often limited on both sides of the desk. This free and easy to use resource is tremendously valuable!"

Mary Tipton Woolley
Georgia Tech

"Slate.org has provided me a one-stop shop to see and monitor my student applications, but it also allows me to see what documents are missing. As a counselor, we don't have a centralized tool to monitor this. Slate.org has made my life easier."

Abdul Oladipo
Beijing World Youth Academy

Join the Slate.org community of over 11,000 high schools worldwide.
Register at www.slate.org

For Colleges & Universities

Slate.org is a free platform for school counselors, colleges, community-based organizations, and students with a commitment to supporting and promoting access to higher education.

View School Profiles

Receive interactive school profile data shared by high schools.

Schedule Visits and Receive Inquiry Data

Register for visits and college fairs posted by high schools. Respond to visit invitations and receive post-visit student attendee data.

Share Information with Schools

Provide checklist requirements, receive documents, and share decisions with schools.

Committed to College Access | Free. Now and Forever

Frequently Asked Questions for Undergraduate Institutions

How do I create an account?

Slate clients do not need to create an account! Slate.org functionality is available in each Slate database. If you are not a Slate client, create an account by visiting www.slate.org to get started.

Who can access Slate.org?

School counselors, colleges and universities, independent counselors, community-based organizations, and students can access Slate.org.

How is access to Slate.org approved?

Requests for access are verified by Technolutions. Only the first user account is approved per organization and then the organization is responsible for adding and maintaining users.

Who can access student data?

Student data is carefully safeguarded and made available only to the approved users at each organization. Student data will never be sold.

Can schools send transcripts through Slate.org?

This secure portal allows schools to upload transcripts and materials directly to applicant files.

What applicant data can be viewed by secondary professionals?

Slate clients can opt-in to sharing data and can configure applicants' checklists, statuses, and decisions. Additionally, materials can be enabled for upload.

How can colleges access the visit calendar?

Slate clients can access Slate.org invitations and events directly through Slate. Institutions that do not use Slate are able to access invitations and events directly through Slate.org.

Will Slate.org remain free?

Slate.org is free and will remain free. We're committed to facilitating stronger relationships between counselors and colleges.

Complete Data Privacy

Technolutions New Haven
157 Church Street, 22nd Floor
New Haven, CT 06510
203.404.4835

Technolutions.com

technolutions